6.Competition Rules and Procedures

6.1 Governing Rules

The competition shall be played in accordance with the latest version of the Rules of Golf as approved by the China Golf Association and promulgated by The R&A Rules Limited, together with the Local Rules and supplementary regulations adopted by the Competition Committee.

6.2 Teeing Grounds by Age Group

- Black tees: Men' s Groups A and B
- Purple tees: Women' s Groups A and B
- Blue tees: Men' s Group C
- White tees: Women' s Group C
- Yellow tees: Men' s Group D
- Red tees: Women' s Group D

6.3 Competition Format

Individual stroke play. Groups A and B shall play three rounds (54 holes); Groups C and D shall play two rounds (36 holes). Rankings are determined by the lowest total gross score.

In the event of a tie for first place in any group, a sudden- death playoff shall be held to determine the winner.

For ties in other positions, ranking shall be determined by:

- (a) the score of the final round (lower score ranks higher);
- (b) if still tied, the score of the last nine holes of the final round (holes 10 – 18; lower score ranks higher);
- (c) if still tied, a hole- by- hole count- back starting from the final hole (hole 18) of the final round (lower score ranks higher);
- (d) if still tied, by lot (draw).

6.4 Score Limit

A maximum- score format is used, with the maximum score per hole set at double the par of that hole.

6.5Caddies and Golf Carts

Players in all groups are required to use golf carts during the competition. Players in Groups A and B will be assigned a driver- caddie; players in Groups C and D will be assigned a dedicated service caddie. All caddies are provided by the club.

6.6 Caddie Tips

Caddie gratuities are the responsibility of the players. For Groups A and B, the minimum gratuity for the driver-caddie is RMB 100 per person per round; for Groups C and D, the minimum gratuity for the service caddie is RMB 200 per person per round. Payment shall be made directly to the caddie immediately after each round.

6.7 Adverse Weather

All reasonable efforts shall be made to complete the scheduled rounds in accordance with the original timetable.

Play shall be suspended if conditions make play impossible. Play must resume as soon as conditions improve, even if the round cannot be completed on that day.

If daylight permits, play may resume on the following day to complete the next scheduled round.

If daylight does not permit, the suspended round may be completed on the following day. In such cases, a single round may take up to two days to complete, depending on the number of players who have already started.

If play is suspended during the final scheduled round and it is impossible for all players to finish, that round shall be cancelled, and the results shall be determined based on the rounds completed by all players.

If adverse weather prevents the completion of at least one full round by all players, the competition shall be cancelled, and no trophies, medals, certificates, or ranking points will be awarded.

7. Tournament Rankings and Awards:

7.1 Trophies, medals, and certificates shall be awarded to the champion, runner-up, and third-place finisher in each division.

7.2 Certificates shall be awarded to players finishing 4th through 6th place in each division.

7.3 The tournament is included in the HSBC China Junior Golf Ranking and the World Amateur Golf Ranking (WAGR). Participating players may earn corresponding ranking points provided that they meet the applicable eligibility requirements of the China Golf Association's Junior Ranking System and the WAGR.
